Confident of Electing Their Whole County Ticket in November by an Overwhelming Majority of Votes

It is many a long day since the Democratic Party in Chicago has been as confident of winning an election as they are the one which will be decided in November next.

They have a strong ticket and are absolutely united under a strong leader whose foresight has won the confidence of all factors—George E. Brennan.

Brennan never gets excited; never makes false predictions and is not wasting his time in trying to nominate any particular candidate for mayor.

The Democratic managing committee at its meeting on Wednesday at Sherman House reorganized under the fifth ward plan and formally opened the 1922 fall campaign.

The new county executive committee named Wednesday is as follows:

George E. Brennan, Michael Kenna, William L. O'Connell, James M. Dailey, Henry Stuckart, P. J. Carr, James M. Whalen, Frank Rydzewski, A. J. Sabath, A. J. Cermak, Martin J. O'Brien, Robert M. Switzer, P. A. Nash, Stanley H. Kunz, Joseph Busch, Stanley Adamewicz, John J. Tink, John Powers, Dennis J. Egan, Dorsey P. Crowe, Henry A. Zender, Neil Marley, Clayton F. Smith, Joseph M. Fitzgerald, M. F. Sheridan, F. J. Walsh, Timothy J. Crowe, Joseph O. Kostner, John S. Clark, Thomas J. Lynch, John E. Traeger, Daniel Ryan, Ross C. Hall, William Legner, Michael Rosenberg, Joseph H. Smith, Rudolph Schapp, James C. Denver, Patrick J. Sullivan, James A. Quinn, Robert W. McKinlay, John P. Keever, Paul Tamillo.

Notable, politically, says the Tribune, is the addition to the list of executive committeemen of the name of James Aloysius Quinn of the Twenty-first ward. Of all belligerents against the old Sullivan-Hopkins-Brennan antagonists, the name of Quinn has led all the rest and the significance that lies on the surface is that the old time north side feud between the Quinn and the O'Malley interests passed out with the death of "John P." as Mr. O'Malley was known in politics.

Brennan says that the man who works the hardest to elect the County ticket this fall will have the best chance for the mayoralty nomination in the spring.

Accordingly the following mayoralty candidates are working overtime for the whole ticket. John T. Connery, Patrick A. Nash, James McAndrews, William H. Sexton, James T. Igoe, Martin J. O'Brien, Judge Frank Johnston, Judge Jacob Hopkins, Stanley Kunz, Carter H. Harrison, Michael Igoe, Dennis J. Egan, Judge John J. Sullivan, Judge William E. Dover, Clayton F. Smith, Wm. L. O'Connell.

The Republicans on the other hand are not united. There are three factions in it that refuse to be appeased and there you are.

There is a bad Republican split on the nominees for trustees of the sanitary district of Chicago.

The Deneen men and the City Hall machine are both said to be sharpening their axes for Lawley and Mueller, the G. O. P. nominees for trusteeships.

Coroner Hoffman, who is now running for sheriff, is going to have his hands full. He flopped away from the City Hall camp last spring. Now the City Hall camp has flopped away from him.

He toddled along with the City Hall crowd and helped them in the County Committee fight. But when the full bill of fare was put on the table at the primary for county offices he threw the mayor's crowd in the air and got the nomination for sheriff as a reward.

The City Hall, it is said, will back two men on the Republican ticket with all its strength. One of these is County Judge Righeimer and the other is Charles Peters, the third man on the ticket for sanitary trustee.

It was announced on Tuesday by the Democratic managers that the recount of ballots in the April primaries for Municipal court judges had made two changes in the regular organization slate. The count is to be completed at noon today, when the final figures will be compiled for forty precincts of the Thirty-fifth ward. Michael F. Ryan, who was on the citizens' slate, has defeated Francis B. Allegretti on the regular slate for a full term nomination for six years. James J. O'Toole, former state representative on the citizens' slate, undoubtedly is a winner over E. Marshall Amberg, regular, for one of the new four year terms.

The Democratic managing committee has slated Mrs. Albert Nowak, widow of the late county commissioner, for election by the board of county commissioners for the place occasioned by her husband's death. Mrs. E. W. Bemis is placed officially upon the Democratic county ticket for the full term election.

Resolutions of respect and sympathy were adopted Tuesday by the executive committee of the Democratic managing committee at the death of Mr. Mayer, for many years legal counsel for the regular Democratic organization. At the time of his death he was a member of the constitutional convention from the First senatorial district, having been nominated in the direct primaries as a Democrat.

Five hundred new clerks have been assigned to the Chicago postoffice to relieve pressure of work and eliminate overtime.

Now if some of the head ornamental super-intendents are fired the service will be greatly improved.

Here is a chance to create a new boulevard that is much needed. Property on both sides of Ashland avenue needed for the opening and widening of that thoroughfare between Irving Park boulevard and West Lake street will be acquired by the board of local improvements. Special assessment rolls levying special assessments amounting to $8,261,642 for acquisition of the sites and buildings were filed by the board with the Circuit Court of Cook County.

Al Spink's column article in the Chicago Evening Post on Tom Foley was read with interest by thousands of old-timers. It was a classic and a deserved tribute to a great and good man.

The Chicago Eagle reaches fifty thousand of the most influential and solid of Chicago's citizens.

One of the worst things in the loop, although well meant, is the flushing of the streets during business hours by the Citizens' Service Bureau. The skidding of automobiles caused by over-wet pavements causes many accidents daily.

The taxes assessed on some loop skyscrapers are ridiculously low—just as their rents are ridiculously high.

George E. Carlson, city commissioner of gas and electricity, will let contracts for the installation of $1,700,000 worth of new street lights.

Nearly 300 officials of chambers of commerce from all parts of the United States were present Monday at the opening of the second national school for commercial secretaries at Northwestern University. The session will last two weeks.

There will be four ballots handed to you to vote on at the November election.

The main ballot will contain the names of the Democratic, Republican, Socialist, Farmer-labor and Independent State's Attorney Crowe never does things half way. He will give school board looters all that is coming to them.

That funds in excess of $2,000,000 will be found missing when the auditors of the United States Audit company finish their work on the books of the old school board, was intimated Tuesday by Judge Crowe. The shortage, the prosecutor added, will be closer to $3,000,000.

Witnesses who were called before the grand jury continued their tales of school board money squandered in devious ways, while new witnesses waited outside the jury room door. Among the latter was Thomas Fitzgerald of the Fitzgerald Boiler company, whose testimony, it was intimated, will add much to the sum total of results.

Prosecutor Crowe intimated that Assistant State's Attorney George C. Gorman had difficulty in preventing the grand jury from voting an immediate blanket indictment at the close of Monday's session.

"Mr. Gorman tells me," State's Attorney Crowe said, "that he had difficulty in preventing the immediate voting of indictments where the evi-

FITZMORRIS DAY

Chief of Police Plans Great Athletic Event. Five Hundred Coppers Will Show Strength and Skill

Chicago policemen will show their athletic prowess in one of the biggest and most picturesque Field Days ever staged in the Middle West. It will be held in Grant Park, Saturday and Sunday, September 16 and 17 for the benefit of the Policemen's Benevolent Association.

Work has been started on the construction of a half mile track and a big amphitheatre to seat 25,000 in Grant Park and already many of the policemen are huddling up in the various parks and playgrounds.

Chief Fitzmorris is the directing head of the plans for the events in which more than 500 athletes of the testants will drive their Fords against the big ball, using the same tactics as the mounted men with their horses.

There will be tug of war contests both for men on foot and the members of the mounted force. A shuttle team race, which resembles the zig zag performance of the United States Naval Academy boys, will be another unique feature.

The motorcycle men plan to give some thrilling performances. Trick riding on a motorcycle is something few people have seen, but Chief Fitzmorris says there is a man on the force who will put circus performers in the shade by his trick stunts in his "Dare devil" engine. Sparing potatoes while riding at top speed on these speed engines and a barrel race for motorcycle men are among the other special attractions being arranged by the committee in charge.

Among the other special events will be wrestling, hand ball contests, trick riding by members of the mounted force, pitching quoits, acrobatic events, wrestling bouts by men on horseback, potatoe races, three legged race, obstacle race, wall scaling, sack race, watermelon race, cocade tilting contest, horse races, band drill, motorcycle drill, mounted drill and physical drill to music of the police band.

The field and track events being arranged by Mr. DeLaney will include 50 yard dash, 100 yard dash, 220 yard dash, 440 yard run, 880 yard run, mile run, running broad jump, running high jump, pole vault for height, hop skip and jump, 16 pound shot put, throwing 56 pound weight, relay races of 440 yards, 880 yards and the mile.

"The purpose of this Field Day," said Chief Fitzmorris, "is to bring out the best athletic talent of the entire department and to encourage the men to take pride in their physical fitness. The proceeds will go to the Policemen's Benevolent Association. The big athletic Amphitheatre under construction in Grant Park will accommodate 25,000 and we expect to fill it. The track is a half mile and the events will be so arranged that people on both sides of the track will see every class of event. When stunts are in progress on one side of the straightaway another team doing the same stunts will be performing on the other side. I expect this to be one of the greatest Field Days ever staged in the Middle West.

"We have some excellent athletes in the department. Some of the boys hold records, in fact we have the distinction as having a member of the force a former member of one of the Olympic teams."

A gold medal will be awarded to the winner in each event, a silver medal to the second and a bronze to the third. A silver trophy will be given to the unit scoring the highest number of points, another trophy will be awarded to the individual making the most points. The victor in each relay race will also receive a prize. All the entries must be in the office of the Superintendent of Police on or before September 2nd.

Judge Righeimer appears to be the strongest man on the Republican ticket. He has no opposition in the ranks of his own party and his clean and efficient record recommends him to thousands of Democratic voters.

FRANK JOHNSTON, JR.
Highly Respected Judge of the Circuit Court Much Talked of By Democrats for Mayor

United States navy, declared Monday in an address at the Pageant of Progress.

The Chicago Eagle reaches fifty thousand of the people of Chicago who mould sentiment and make public opinion.

The new Constitution is going to be beaten and it ought to be. The deprivation of Chicago of its right to Home Rule is reason enough.

After the November election the chances are that the Democratic State and County Committees will commence a fight for the defeat of the new Constitution on December 12.

The bench with Schein would be quite fine. Then keep in line, because George L.'s a winning sign.

dence in one or two cases was insufficient.

"He also tells me that he may be able to show by other evidence that several thousands of dollars yet unaccounted for were appropriated for the use of a very select few of the old board members."

It is reported that indictments have been found against Davis, Severinghaus, Forsberg and Bollermaker Fitzgerald.

In addition to the regular field and track events, which are being arranged under the supervision of Mr. DeLaney, there will be many picturesque stunts, novel features and thrilling special events, which are being worked out by Chief Fitzmorris, Major Baader, Capt. John Norton and Lieut. Smith of the Motorcycle Division.

Mounted policemen will engage in the exciting game of push ball—driving the giant sphere from one end of the park to the other on their prancing steeds. Another novel push ball event will consist of the use of flippers instead of horses. The con-
